

The Institute for Judaism and Civilization invites you to a forum on
Judaism and Geocentrism
 (the earth-centred view of the Universe)

With Professor Avraham Hasofer,
 Emeritus Professor of Mathematics

At a time when secular scientific cosmologies such as those of Darwinism are being called into question, it is also timely to examine the scientific and philosophical status of the Geocentric model of the Universe as set out in the work of Maimonides, and its relationship to the teachings of Judaism (and indeed of universal religious principles).
